Academic employment

Assistant Professor, University of California, Los Angeles.	2014 – present
Assistant Professor, Pomona College.	2012 – 2014
Lab Manager of the Neurolinguistics Lab, New York University.	2004 – 2006

Education

Ph.D. Linguistics, University of Massachusetts Amherst.   2012

Dissertation: Processing perspectives.
Committee: Lyn Frazier (co-chair), Christopher Potts (co-chair),
Barbara H. Partee, Adrian Staub, and Charles Clifton, Jr.

M.Sc. Logic, University of Amsterdam.   2007

Thesis: Revealing concealment: a (neuro-)logical investigation of concealed questions.
Committee: Paul Dekker, Liina Pylkkänen, and Martin Stokhof.

M.A. Linguistics, University of Chicago.   2003

Thesis: Adverb distribution and scope.
Committee: Anastasia Giannakidou and Jason Merchant.

B.A. Linguistics, University of Chicago.   2003

Honors Thesis: What this is is a pseudocleft: Reference, demonstratives and lists in specificational pseudoclefts.
Committee: Anastasia Giannakidou and Jason Merchant.

Talks and conference presentations

Invited Talks

11. Commitment by proxy: Perspective management with transparent free relatives. Invited speaker talk at the Perspectivization workshop at Generative Linguistics in the Old World (GLOW), held at the University of Göttingen, Germany. April 8, 2016.

10. On sprouting in much less ellipsis. Invited speaker at UMass Psycholinguistics Workshop. December 3, 2015. Presented joint work with Katy Carlson.

9. Processing Preferences in Focus-Sensitive Coordination: Locality and Parallelism. Invited colloquium talk at University of California, San Diego, Department of Linguistics. April 13, 2015. Presented joint work with Katy Carlson.

8. Processing Preferences in Focus-Sensitive Coordination: Locality and Parallelism. Keynote address at the 38th Annual Linguistics Spring Colloquium at the San Diego State University, Department of Linguistics. April 11, 2015. Presented joint work with Katy Carlson.

7. Commitment by proxy. Invited talk at University of California, San Diego, Department of Linguistics; Semantics Babble group. June 6, 2014.

6. Processing focus sensitive-coordination. Invited colloquium talk at University of California, Los Angeles, Department of Linguistics. February 7, 2014.

5. Processing expectations for focus sensitive coordination. Invited talk at University of Southern California, Department of Linguistics; Psycholinguistics group. November 22, 2013.

4. Generating alternatives on demand: Processing sluices with d-linked remnants. Invited colloquium talk at University of California, Santa Cruz, Department of Linguistics. April 5, 2013.

3. Fast, cheap, but totally in control: Using Amazon's Mechanical Turk for Psycholinguistics Experiments. Invited tutorial at University of Southern California, Department of Linguistics. October 5, 2012.

2. On selecting quantificational domains during sentence processing. University of Tübingen, Department of Linguistics. February 17, 2011. Presented joint work with Chuck Clifton and Lyn Frazier.

1. Processing and domain selection: Quantificationally variable effects. Pomona College, Department of Linguistics & Cognitive Science. February 5, 2011. Presented joint work with Chuck Clifton and Lyn Frazier.

Conference Presentations

49. Thematic assignment before repair: Syntactic and prosodic cues in reanalysis. Talk at The Experimental Psycholinguistics Conference, Menorca, Spain, June 28–30, 2017.

48. Predictability and misperception: An eye movement and ex-Gaussian analysis. Poster presented with Stephanie Rich and Ian Rigby at The 30th Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing, Boston, MA, March 30–April 1, 2017.

47. Predicted analyses linger: The case for structural prediction with either-or structures. Poster presented with Stephanie Rich at The 30th Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing, Boston, MA, March 30–April 1, 2017.

46. Sloppy on the road to strict? Stereotypical gender and the interpretation of VP Ellipsis. Poster presented with John Gluckman and Marju Kaps at The 30th Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing, Boston, MA, March 30–April 1, 2017.

45. Semantic selectivity in the retrieval of sluiced sentences: An eye movement study. Poster presented at The 30th Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing, Boston, MA, March 30–April 1, 2017.

44. Implicit prosody and thematic assignment in garden-path recovery. Poster presented at The 30th Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing, Boston, MA, March 30–April 1, 2017.

43. Association with focus for focus-sensitive particles: Differences between only and even in silent reading. Talk with Katy Carlson at The 91st Annual Meeting of the Linguistic Society of America, Austin, TX, February 5–8, 2017.

42. Remnant seeks correlate for contrastive relationship. Locals preferred. Talk with Katy Carlson at Ellipsis Across Borders Conference 2016, Sarajevo, June 20–21, 2016

41. Implicit prosody pulls its weight: Recovery from garden path sentences. Poster with Sun-Ah Jun and Adam Royer at The 8th Meeting of the Speech Prosody International Conference, Boston, MA. May 31 – June 3, 2016.

40. Correlate not optional: PP sprouting in 'much less' ellipsis. Poster with Katy Carlson at the 29th Annual CUNY Human Sentence Processing Conference. University of Florida, Gainseville. March 3–5, 2016.

39. Preference for single events guides perception in Russian: A phoneme restoration study. Poster with Natasha Korotkova at the Events in Language and Cognition Workshop. University of Florida, Gainseville. March 2, 2016.

38. When structure isn't enough: Discourse contrast in resolving focus-sensitive coordination. Talk with Katy Carlson at DETEC 2015: Discourse Expectations: Theoretical, Experimental, and Computational Perspectives, University of Alberta, Canada. June 17–19, 2015.

37. Favoring a broad QUD in focus sensitive coordination. Talk with Katy Carlson at Grasping Ellipsis: its syntax, semantics, acquisition and processing, University of Campinas, Brazil. May 4–5, 2015.

36. Structure modulates similarity-based interference in sluicing: An eye movement study. Poster at the 28th Annual CUNY Human Sentence Processing Conference. University of Southern California. March 19–21, 2015.

35. Focus particles in context: Support for the Broadest Focus Principle. Poster with Katy Carlson at the 28th Annual CUNY Human Sentence Processing Conference. University of Southern California. March 19–21, 2015.

34. Focus marking isn't enough: The role of structural bias in focus-sensitive coordination. Poster with Katy Carlson at the 28th Annual CUNY Human Sentence Processing Conference. University of Southern California. March 19–21, 2015.

33. Lexical Decision in Real Time: A Mouse Tracking Study. Poster with Lindsey Meyer at the 55th Annual Meeting of the Psychonomic Society. Long Beach, CA. November 20–23, 2014.

32. A Transparent Semantics for Transparent Free Relatives. Talk at California Universities Semantics and Pragmatics (CUSP) 7. University of California, Los Angeles. November 8–9, 2014.

31. Discourse accessibility and structural bias: Processing d-linked phrases in sluices. Invited panel talk for Computational and experimental approaches to reference and anaphoric inference at the 2nd Conference of the American Pragmatics Association (AMPRA). University of California, Los Angeles. October 17–19, 2014. (Talk declined for scheduling reasons.)

30. Preferences for focus particle placement: Two experiments. Talk with Katy Carlson at the 2nd Conference of the American Pragmatics Association (AMPRA). University of California, Los Angeles. October 17–19, 2014.

29. Biscuit conditionals as indirect offers. Talk with Danielle Holstein at the 2nd Conference of the American Pragmatics Association (AMPRA). University of California, Los Angeles. October 17–19, 2014.

28. Adjective sprouting in much-less ellipsis. Talk with Katy Carlson at the 20th Architectures and Mechanisms for Language Processing (AMLaP). University of Edinburgh, Scotland. September 3–6, 2014.

27. What was the question? Broad focus in focus-sensitive coordination. Poster with Katy Carlson at the 20th Architectures and Mechanisms for Language Processing (AMLaP). University of Edinburgh, Scotland. September 3–6, 2014.

26. Signaling non-speaker commitment in transparent free relatives: A paired speaker-hearer judgment study. At the 18th Workshop on the Semantics and Pragmatics of Dialgue (SemDial). Heriot-Watt University, Edinburgh, Scotland. September 1–3, 2014.

25. The local contrast expectation in let alone coordination. Talk with Katy Carlson at the 27th Annual CUNY Human Sentence Processing Conference. The Ohio State University. March 13–15, 2014.

24. Focus preferences for focus-sensitive particles (and why). Poster with Katy Carlson at the 27th Annual CUNY Human Sentence Processing Conference. The Ohio State University. March 13–15, 2014.

23. Shifting viewpoints and discourse economy. Poster at the 27th Annual CUNY Human Sentence Processing Conference. The Ohio State University. March 13–15, 2014.

22. That's, what, an approximation? A formal semantics for approximative 'what.' Talk at Semantics and Linguistic Theory (SALT) 23. University of California, Santa Cruz. May 3–5, 2013.

21. Figuring out Kafka: structural biases induce early sense commitment for metonyms. Poster with Joel Fishbein at the 26th Annual CUNY Human Sentence Processing Conference. University of South Carolina. March 21–23, 2013.

20. Discourse accessibility and structural bias: Processing d-linked phrases in sluices. Poster at the 26th Annual CUNY Human Sentence Processing Conference. University of South Carolina. March 21–23, 2013.

19. The cost of unexpected contrast: processing 'let alone'. Poster at the 26th Annual CUNY Human Sentence Processing Conference. University of South Carolina. March 21–23, 2013.

18. Using Structural Cues in Processing Polysemes. Poster with Joel Fishbein at the 87th Annual Meeting of the Linguistic Society of America (LSA), Boston, MA. January 3–6, 2013.

17. Voltaire was More Easily Duped than Forged: Structural Cues in Processing Polysemy. Talk with Joel Fishbein at Experimental Psycholinguistics Conference (ERP), Madrid, Spain. November 7–9, 2012.

16. A semantics for interjective 'what.' Talk at the 5th California Universities Semantics and Pragmatics (CUSP). University of California, San Diego. October 27-28, 2012.

15. Alternatives on demand: Processing d-linked phrases in sluice structures. Poster at Architectures and Mechanisms for Language Processing (AMLaP). Riva del Garda, Italy. September 6–8, 2012.

14. On the semantics of domain adjectives in English. Poster at the 30th West Coast Conference on Formal Linguistics (WCCFL). University of California, Santa Cruz, CA. April 13–15, 2012.

13. On the syntax and semantics of domain adjectives in English. Talk accepted at the Workshop on Modification (with & without modifiers). Center of Human and Social Sciences (CCHS-CSIC) in Madrid, Spain. December 15–16, 2011. (Talk declined for scheduling reasons.)

12. Semantic and syntactic analyses of intervention effects in pied-piping: A sentence rating experiment. Talk with Seth Cable accepted at Generative Linguistics in the Old World (GLOW) Workshop on Semantic Approaches to Intervention Effects. University of Vienna, Wien. April 27, 2011. (Talk declined for scheduling reasons.)

11. Processing and domain selection: Quantificationally variable domains. Poster presented at the Institute for the Computational and Experimental Study of Language (ICESL) launch workshop with Charles Clifton, Jr. & Lyn Frazier. UMass Amherst. 2011.

10. Processing and domain selection: Quantificationally variable domains. Poster presented at the 24th Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing with Charles Clifton, Jr. & Lyn Frazier. Stanford University. 2011.

9. The pragmatics of free indirect discourse: A questionnaire study. Poster presented at the Workshop on Presupposition, Projection, Entailment, and Assertion (PEPA) II. University of British Columbia, Vancouver, B.C. 2010.

8. Locality, Event-construal and Extraction: Psycholinguistic Evidence. Talk presented at the 45th Annual Meeting of the Chicago Linguistic Society. 2009.

7. Perspective-shifting with appositives and expressives. Paper presented at the Workshop on Presupposition, Projection, Entailment, and Assertion (PEPA) I, with Christopher Potts. 2009

6. The Event-Extraction Correlation: Evidence from Coordination. Poster presented at the 22nd Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing. U.C. Davis, CA. 2009.

5. On the Syntax and Semantics of Heim's Ambiguity. Talk presented at the 27th West Coast Conference on Formal Linguistics (WCCFL). UCLA, CA. 2008.

4. Questions. Talk presented at the American Association for Artificial Intelligence 2007 Workshop on Cognitive Approaches to NLP with Christopher Potts and Maribel Romero. Arlington, VA. 2007.

3. The Interpretation of Concealed Questions: MEG and Eye-Tracking Data. Poster presented at the 19th Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing with Liina Pylkkänen, Brian McElree, & Steven Frisson. City University of New York. 2006.

2. The roles of the right hemisphere and the anterior midline field in semantic processing: MEG studies. Poster presented at the Annual Meeting of the Computational Neuroscience Society with Liina Pylkkänen, Gregory L. Murphy, Brian McElree, Jasmine Francis, Andrea E. Martin & Rudolfo Llinás. 2005.

1. The associative origins of words. Paper presented at the 38th Annual Meeting of the Chicago Linguistic Society with Terry Regier. 2002.

Research Experience

Lab director of the Language Processing Lab at UCLA.

Present: Complete renovation of Psycholinguistics space to create the Language Processing Lab at UCLA; duties include managing large team of undergraduate and graduate student researchers in a wide range of experimental paradigms and corpus research, as well as staffing graduate and undergraduate courses on language processing and research methods. Over 30 students advised.

Lab director of the Language Processing Lab at Pomona College.

3 years: Started and managed the Language Processing Lab at Pomona College, running approximately 25 experiments using a wide range of experimental methods, including eye-tracking, pupillometry, self-paced reading, lexical decision, and both written and auditory questionnaires.

Research assistant for Lyn Frazier and Charles Clifton, Jr. at UMass Amherst

5 semesters: work included extensive training on various experimental methods, including eye-tracking, self-paced reading, auditory and written questionnaires.

Research assistant for Christopher Potts at UMass Amherst

3 semesters: work included testing Pragbot (an interactive game environment played over the Internet), the collection and annotation of a corpus of embedded appositives, and online experiments testing expressive meaning.

Research assistant for Seth Cable at UMass Amherst

2 semesters: research concentrated on designing, implementing and analyzing experiments to test extraction and pied piping structures on Amazon's Mechanical Turk.

Research assistant and lab manager for Liina Pylkkänen at New York University

2 years: duties included managing the newly formed NYU Neurolinguistics Lab, running subjects on the MEG instrument at Bellevue Hospital, designing experiments and analyzing MEG data, and running behavioral studies.

Undergraduate research assistant for Terry Regier at the University of Chicago

1 year: duties involved running subjects and helping to design a computational model of associative word learning.
